REBS TIGHTEN WESTLOCK SERIES

BY DOUG BARNES

The Rebels lost the first game of the two game total point series of Provincial Playoff, 3-2 to Ray's Esso last Tuesday, March 2. Rebels goals scored by Henry Hodgson and Dan Davie.

Ten penalties were handed out by referee's Ernie Bourk and Ron Panchyhyh. Six to Drayton Valley and four to Ray's Esso.

Thursday's game turned out to be a different story as the Rebels really started skating.

Ray's Esso started the scoring at 3:25. The Rebels tied it up at 12:17 with a goal by Doug Hall, assisted by Terry McGowan and Gary Haack. First period ended tied.

Rebels went ahead 2-1 at :44 seconds on an unassisted goal by Sam Belcourt. At 5:37, then Ray's Esso tied it up. Then Ray LaPointe put the Rebels ahead again at 18:59 assisted by Jim Feeney and Frank Novosel. The second period, Rebels 3, Ray's Esso 2, and tied up in the total point series.

At 3:10 of the third period Ray's Esso scored to tie up the game and go ahead one goal in the series, but this was their last goal of the game.

The Rebels took over from here and Henry Hodgson scored the series-tying goal at 9:26 unassisted.

the scoring in the first overtime period but the Challengers came back with three unanswered goals to win the contest 10-6 and win the two game total goal contest 13-11.

P.C. Constituency Association Names New Officers Thursday

Annual meeting of the Drayton Valley Progressive Conservative Constituency Association was held in the Legion Hall in Drayton Valley last Thursday evening with forty or fifty area residents present.

Guest speaker for the occasion was P.C. Candidate for the Edmonton Highlands riding Mr. Dave King who pinch-hit for Dr. Hugh Homer who was forced to cancel his attendance due to a night sitting of the Legislative Assembly.

Mr. King, 24, the youngest candidate representing the Conservatives to-date, is a former researcher on the Lougheed team and has been active in planning since the party resurgence in 1965.

He touched on several features of the P.C. platform for the next election with stress on forward-looking attitudes. The present government, he said, is more concerned with defending its past than planning for the future.

Thirty-five years ago when the Socreds swept into power, they were members of a party offering a new idea to an electorate grasping for something to relieve the oppression of the "dirty-thirties". The Progressive Conservative Party, he said, is the first since 1935, prepared to offer an alternative and the ability to form a new government.

He noted that Rusty Zander, P.C. Candidate for the Drayton Valley Constituency, is very highly regarded in the party and by its workers.

Mr. Zander spoke briefly and pointed to membership sales in the riding -- 3rd or 4th highest in the province -- as an indication of the interest the P.C. Campaign is drawing in the riding and in the province.

Mr. Zander touched on several subjects during his address, among them a pledge, if elected "to do everything in my power to help alleviate the dismal farm situation". People will be the first consideration, he said, if the Progressive Conservatives form the next government.

Election of constituency association officers took place during the evening and saw Al Chesterman of Drayton Valley re-elected as president. Vice-Presidents are, Norm Moore, Alder Flats; Jack Tyler, Drayton Valley; Norm Haffner, Camwood; and Otto Hansen, Moon Lake. Secretary is Alf Armstrong and Treasurer Mr. Marilyn McLean, both of Drayton Valley.

Directors who were present and accepted election were: Lyle Oulton, Breton; Hugh Kapteyn, Moon Lake; Charles Brown, Camwood; Mary Burrows, Drayton Valley; John Bootsma, Drayton Valley; Jack Thatcher, Berry-moor; Jack Coward, Drayton Valley; and Emie Lindskoog, Drayton Valley. ed, and scored the winning goal at 12:02 assisted by Sam Belcourt. At 15:46 Ray LaPointe from Frank Novosel and Doug Hall. Frank Roggeveen finished off the scoring at 18:18 assisted by Frank Novosel. Rebels winning the series 9 - 6.

A good fast-skating clean hockey game. Only eight penalties handed out by referee's Eric Paterson and Ernie Bourk, four to each team.

Rebels now meet Camrose in the next Provincial Play-off round. Starting Saturday night in Camrose and back here on Sunday afternoon at 1:30. This is also a two game total point series.

Last Saturday night the Westlock Eagles went ahead two games to none in the League semi-final by beating the Rebels 6 - 3 in Westlock. It was a penalty-ridden game. The Rebels did not skate as well as they can. Barry Ness is back and gave good account of himself.

Rebel goal scorers were Rick LaPointe, Jim Feeney and Barry Ness. Assists coming from Dan Davie and Frank Roggeveen. Twenty-eight penalties were handed out by referee's Jim McCallum and Jim Oks.

Sunday afternoon at home before a record-breaking 844 fans the Rebels played hockey the way they are capable of playing. This was a rough, tough well-played hockey game. Again there were a lot of penalties, twenty in all, nine to the Rebels and 7 even to Westlock.

Barry Ness let the Eagles know he was back by scoring a goal and a T.K.O. Sam Belcourt, Henry Hodgson and Frank Roggeveen lead the Rebels to their win with 3 points each.

The Rebels have a habit of making things thrilling. After one period and two minutes of the game, they were down 4-1. They then scored six unanswered goals.

In the first period at 6:45 Henry Hodgson scored from Doug Hall. Second period, Sam Belcourt unassisted at 5:42, Henry Hodgson from Terry McGowan and Sam Belcourt at 17:45. Third period, Frank Roggeveen from Doug Hall at 7:39 to tie the game. The game winner at 8:30 by Dan Davie from Frank Roggeveen. Sam Belcourt from Terry McGowan and Henry Hodgson at 16:27. Barry Ness finished off the scoring at 17:33 assisted by Frank Roggeveen.

I don't think any fans went home disappointed on Sunday except of course Westlock fans. If the Rebels can come through Tuesday night in Westlock (and I believe they will) Thursday we should have another full house.

This is a real good play-off hockey. The Westlock Eagles are a good checking hard-skating Club and the first place Rebels looked on Sunday like they are coming back to Mid-January form.

At the moment play-off games coming up Thursday 8:30 p.m., Westlock Eagles at Drayton Valley. 5th game League semi-final - Drayton Valley at Camrose, Saturday 8:30 p.m. Provincial 2nd round play-off, Sunday 2:30 p.m., Camrose at Drayton Valley, 2nd game. Two game total-point Provincial play-off game.

From here we don't know yet. Camrose is down two games, to Fort Saskatchewan in League semi-final. Fort Saskatchewan was beaten out of the Provincial Play-off by Sherwood Park.

The Drayton Valley Bantams did a fine job Sunday by defeating Westlock in Provincial Zone Play-off. Now they meet the winner from the Peace River block. Saturday and Sunday here at the arena.

The Rebels wish the Burrows Motor Bantams lots of luck and get out there and skate.

Tractor Club Plans Trip to Edmonton Rodeo

The ninth regular meeting of the 16A 4-H Tractor Club was held on March 4th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Mazeppa of Evansburg.

Zane Bruner, the secretary, is to write to another company to see if we can get crests made, because the company that we had originally asked to make crests for us, will not make the small amount we had asked for.

The members who wanted to go bowling and curling in Edmonton on the 9th of March, will have to find their own ride to Edmonton because it is too late and we could not find a bus to take us.

The club has planned to go to the Rodeo in Edmonton on Tuesday, March 30.

Victor Rosaduk gave a report on his visit with Mr. Barnstead. He asked Mr. Barnstead if we could make direction signs as a community project. The secretary is to write to the district engineer to see if we can make the signs.

After all business was completed, the members discussed and did their books. For next meeting Mr. Mazeppa is going to try and bring an air cleaner and explain how it works.

A delicious lunch was served after the meeting.

Report From Parliament Hill

By Allen Sulatycky, M.P.

A major piece of legislation for controlling air pollution in Canada, a Clean Air Bill, was introduced into the House of Commons last month. The Government Bill, which received Second Reading (approval in principle) on February 19th, is the responsibility of Jack Davis who is Minister designate of the new Department of the Environment.

Mr. Davis has made a commitment that the Department of the Environment will place clean-up of current air pollution and the preservation of clean air quality at the top of its list of priorities. The Clean Air Bill will make it possible for the Federal Government to lead a co-operative Federal-Provincial attack on air pollution in Canada, including such factors as health costs, housing and building maintenance, and laundry and cleaning costs, is estimated at $1.5 billion annually.

The Bill gives the Federal Government authority to:

- set national air quality objectives;
- set national emission standards where there is a significant danger to health or where international agreements on air pollution control are involved;
- set national emission guidelines to assist provinces and local governments in developing uniform regulations across Canada;

-- set specific emission standards for all works, undertakings or businesses under Federal legislation authority;

-- regulate the composition of fuels that may be produced or imported into Canada.

The Bill enables the Federal Government to enter into agreements with individual provinces to combat air pollution within the province or in interprovincial problem areas. On the basis of such agreements the Federal Government will have authority to set individual emission standards to ensure that national clean air objectives are met and will be empowered to take direct action in emergency situations.

Penalties proposed in the Bill can go as high as $200,000 for contravening a national emission standard and up to $5,000 per day for producing or importing prohibited fuels or contravening other requirements under the Bill.

The national air quality objectives, based upon the degree of contamination, will be set in three ranges - "desirable", "acceptable" and "tolerable". Canada's long term goal will be to bring air quality within the "desirable" range.

The Bill recognizes the need for monitoring air quality throughout the country and provides for the strengthening of the current Federal-Provincial co-operative National Air Sampling network.

Federal Government discussions held with provincial governments have shown that many provinces were becoming very active in air pollution control. However, there is also a general recognition of the need for Federal Government involvement in transboundary problems and in the establishing of monitoring networks, the fostering of research, and the setting of national objectives and standards.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

By Kevin Peterson and Don Sellar (Of the Calgary Herald)

The Social Credit cabinet and its Progressive Conservative shadow are continuing their fight to see who will dominate the pre-election session of the Legislature.

The number and intensity of head-on confrontations between individual ministers and their Opposition counterparts are growing, as the government follows the strategy of replying immediately to each Tory assault.

It's significant that the two party leaders, Premier Harry Strom and Peter Lougheed, have twice appeared back-to-back in debate--something they hadn't done in two previous sessions.

Some of the other clashes have pitted Health Minister J. D. Henderson against Tory pollution critic Bill Yurko, Social Development Minister Ray Speaker against PC welfare spokesman Len Werry, Mines and Minerals Minister Russell Patrick against oil critic Don Getty and Municipal Affairs Minister Fred Colborne against Dave Russell.

None of the confrontations has produced clear victories. In each case, the Tories have led off the debate, only to meet an immediate government reply that neutralizes most of the criticism they have raised.

The strategy on both sides of the House is plain: It's a fight for newspaper headlines and a spot on the television news.

Under the old style of debate, information came out in fragments over a period of days on any given issue. Under the new one, a single day's debate can clear away an issue.

Meanwhile, the daily oral question period has diminished in importance. Opposition questions have delved into minor issues such as government printing contracts, and the government has successfully thwarted Tory efforts to exploit major topics by volunteering as little information as possible during the question period.

Despite all the talk about MLAs being anxious to head home to the hustings this year, the bustiness of the Legislature drags on at virtually the same languid pace as it has in past years.

During the first three weeks of the session, for example, the House gave first reading to 25 government bills. During the same period last year, there were 29 pieces of government legislation introduced.

It remains to be seen whether the pace will quicken--or slow even more--when members begin the laborious task of examining government spending estimates.

During the third week of the session, the Tories brought in two major pieces of legislation, neither of which contained any big surprises.

Both measures--merger of the health and social development departments and creation of a hospital services commission--are expected to draw considerable Conservative criticism before they become law.

And the Tories also have indicated they intend to fight the government's proposed $38 million ceiling on oil royalty grants to municipalities.

Editorial Comment

Annual Meetings a Vital Part of Municipal Government

Apathy is the greatest enemy of democracy -- and unfortunately, we have it in abundance.

It's a thought to keep before you as we approach the annual meeting season. A handful of people at town, village or county annual meetings isn't very inspiring -- nor is likely to produce the best in the democratic system.

Fortunately our elected representatives are conscientious people, and despite the disinterest usually shown by taxpayers, will probably continue to do their best for the governments they serve.

However, our system of government does not leave responsibility entirely in the hands of the elected few -- the annual meeting is intended to give ratepayers the opportunity to learn, question and speak on community affairs -- and to help chart the course for the next year.

Junior Citizen Program Receives Recognition

It was a pleasure to learn last week that Calgary Power's Junior Citizen of the Year program was named winner of first prize in the "Best Institutional Campaign" category at a recent Calgary Chamber of Commerce awards night.

The merit of the program has long been known to rural Albertans and the weekly press and we feel is most deserving of the honor bestowed upon it by the Calgary Chamber.

Weekly newspapers have been pleased to work in conjunction with the electric utility companies on the program and the editor of The Western Review is proud of four framed certificates hanging on the office wall that tell of our small part over the past few years.

A Few Too Many!

Thirty-two commercials during a two hour TV movie presentation is a bit thick. But it's exactly the number that irritated viewers during a program last week.

We're well aware that someone must pay the shot for presenting the movie -- but isn't there a more subtle way of selling without interrupting every few minutes with another deodorant or toothpaste blurb?

TV moguls should be looking for an answer -- irritating advertising isn't likely to make friends -- and they might find the golden egg layer dead from an overdose of nausea.

A National Institution

"Collectively the nation's weekly press represents a national institution in a country which has far too few national institutions. More often than not the nation's weekly press is the first, the most local, the most immediate medium for hundreds of thousands of Canadians. The weekly press compliments all other media and in so doing plays a significant community role probably beyond the capability of any other media."

The above quotation is from the Senate Report on Mass Media recently released. Truly it is a compliment to the weekly newspaper industry which has been involved in an up-hill struggle in recent years with the familiar ever-increasing costs of production coupled with a decline in national advertising revenue.

Economist Says 'Think Markets' To Build Trade

If Alberta or Canada hope to capture a larger share of world trade, everyone involved in agriculture is going to have to be prepared to "think markets", claims an Alberta agricultural marketing authority.

Dr. Harold C. Love, professor of agricultural economics, University of Alberta, says any successful exporting country must appraise the market in which it hopes to sell and be prepared to adjust production, grading and marketing techniques to accommodate any potential customers. In many cases, it might also be necessary to devise different credit arrangements as well.

Dr. Love, who was commissioned to do a study of the Japanese market potential for Alberta beef during the 1970's says an exporting country such as Canada would be advised to study such matters as consumption patterns, national preferences, buying habits and other sociological factors. Other factors which must be taken into account are climate, income levels and buying capabilities, which might or might not permit householders to own refrigerators.

No man's opinion is entirely worthless. Even a watch that won't run is right twice a day.

LETTERS

TO THE EDITOR

Editor,
The Western Review,
Dear Sir:

We again held our Baden Powell service on Sunday, February 21st with a very poor response of parents. It's sure too bad that not more of you parents care to even take part in something that your children are in to at least show you care for them as we only had a couple of people outside of our executive that attended.

We had a total of about 12 grown-ups there. Now isn't this a shame to think some of us go through all this to hold a service and you parents won't even show up, not for our sake but for your boys.

But we do this not because we get paid for it as we don't but because there are still some of us that care for our boys in Drayton Valley and want to see this fine organization carry on but unless some of you decide to care also it may not be carried on much longer without the support of more parents.

So why don't you stop and think of these fine boys of ours in Drayton Valley and lend us a helping hand.

Meetings every third Monday of each month at 8:30 p.m. in the Scout Hall.

Delia Duperron,
Secretary,
Group Committee.

Editor,
The Western Review,
Dear Sir:

I am sure that you will be happy to know that the Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year programme won a first prize in a contest sponsored by the Calgary Chamber of Commerce Ad & Sales Bureau. At the Bureau's "Awards Night" recently, it was named winner of the "Best Institutional Campaign" category.

The Junior Citizen programme was designed to give recognition and awards to deserving young Albertans - not to win awards itself! However, this is the second award the programme has won - some years ago the Canadian Public Relations Society honoured it.

This is the 10th year that you and your readers have supported the Junior Citizen programme, and I would like to thank you for this support and participation. The success of the programme is largely due to your efforts.

Here at Calgary Power we are celebrating our 60th anniversary as an independent Canadian company serving you. We are proud of our record of service, and the best anniversary present you can give us is to nominate candidates from your community for the 1971 Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year award.

Yours sincerely,
T. Finnis

Editor
The Western Review,
Dear Sir:

Sunday Worship -- Should I or Not? My answer to Father Lynch in The Western Review -- 2/24/71.

Consider each line. If he implies church-going, heaven help me! My reasons do not come under the categories he gives.

In 1946 I had a sale and aimed to live near my cousins in California. Good-living Christian Scientists and prosperous -- I write to one yet but not of that faith. It seems some make vows to uphold their own cult to the exclusion of others! -- Sense or reason?

To say my criteria is as good as dogma, but certain phenomena obtrude before our eyes and mind glaringly, and since belief is definitely not material or tangible there is something amiss.

I paid $500 for my set of books -- largely philosophy (the two Syntopicon Books cost one million to write) mine came with the set of Great Books of the Western World. (I have not learned of another set in Drayton Valley.)

Science claims stone tools were made one million years ago and a million tons of amber in Switzerland and East Prussia from pre-history pine forests and containing fossilized insects. The writers of the Bible knew absolutely nothing of paleontology, orology, or rocks and what they revealed.

My books of science claim all life came from the sea and humans probably the same way. And as groups, not as individuals -- probably leaned against a tree or fence to dry? Consider that!

As ozone and oxygen increased the rainbow gradually came about over a million years -- not all of a sudden. A few years back I saw two bright fog-bows at Round Valley.

During the 1950 decade I read a few hundred of the best books from the University of Alberta and have studied one million words during the past 40 years. My plea is for building home libraries so adult education may be acquired.

I know I am essentially ignorant of many things. But I read the Bible -- "Ye are born of fire": John II. In ancient times -- atmospheric conditions, rock erosion, fermentation, heat, moisture -- and in sequence modern life came into being. And will most likely continue hereafter.

Yours sincerely,
Fred E. Hunt.

Dear Sir:

The Directors of the Alberta Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association wish to express their sincere appreciation to the Western Review for the assistance given in publicizing the Christmas Seal Campaign in the Edmonton area.

We are happy to report that the returns in the current campaign have reached approximately $292,000. This is up slightly from the previous year and represents contributions from nearly 102,000 Albertans, not including employee groups.

We are proud of the confidence displayed by the public in our Association.

DELEGATION

Messrs. L. MacLean, M. Helm R. Mayhew, C. Albert and W. G. Johanneson of the Town of Drayton Valley came to see the School Committee regarding the financing of the new Drayton Valley High School. In the original stages of negotiations it was understood that the Town of Drayton Valley was to contribute $50,000.00. When the Town approached the Local Authorities Board for permission to borrow $50,000.00, they were advised that unless they had an agreement for joint ownership they could not borrow by debenture.

The Drayton Valley officials want the County to borrow this $50,000.00 and the Town will pay to the County the amount of the Debenture repayments as they come due.

Mr. M. Holman was instructed to investigate this matter further and report to the next meeting.

The following correspondence was presented to the School Committee for information:-

Newspapers Win by Large Margin in Advertising Survey

Bill Forbes, editor of Canadian Printer & Publisher, comes up with this "first genuine comparison of newspaper-radio-television effectiveness" for retail advertisers.

In a recent market survey, all four parties -- retailers, newspapers, radio and television stations -- cooperated to test the effectiveness of 11.6 pages of newspaper advertising, 438 thirty-second spot ads (261 on five radio stations; 177 on five television stations) in 2,176 interviews with people in the survey area.

Newspapers came up roses, three to one or better; with only 38 per cent of the advertising budget, they developed 71 per cent of the advertising influence; television (49 per cent of the budget) developed 28 percent of influence; radio (12 percent of the budget) developed only nine percent of the influence.

The pick of the hops makes the pick of the beer.

Hops do beautiful things to beer. They give it memorable flavour. "Hopping" is the art of blending hops into the brew so the flavour of the beer never varies. That's an art we cultivate for Calgary Export Lager. Our hops come from the World's great hop growing areas. We select them with care, pick them with gentleness, then blend them at precisely the right moment. After all, we love our beer, and because we want you to love it too, we never compromise. Next time you thirst for something beautiful, enjoy the famous taste of Calgary Export Lager Beer.

Below, Brewmaster A.J. Kerr and Brewers R. Piesanen and S.C. O'Brien inspect the quality of 1970 hops.

Red Cross Campaign This Month

March is Red Cross Month and time to pay tribute to the Red Cross Society's services and its thousands of volunteer workers.

Over ninety percent of Red Cross work is done by these volunteers who come from all walks of life, and are of all ages, races and creeds. Volunteers help with the recruiting of volunteer blood donors and the organization and operation of Red Cross blood donor clinics.

Specially trained Red Cross volunteers teach children and adults water safety practices so that they may enjoy water activities in safety. They also operate many special water safety programs for the physically handicapped, the mentally retarded, the deaf, and the blind. Many volunteer hours are dedicated to visiting veterans in hospitals.

Many women volunteers use their talents to make layettes, bedding and articles of clothing for the victims of disasters at home and abroad. They also prepare thousands of cotton swabs for use at blood donor clinics.

Hundreds of teachers serve as Red Cross volunteers in the schools by promoting and sponsoring the Red Cross Youth program with its three aims of health, service to others and international friendship and understanding.

It is through the financial support of the Canadian public that the articles used for operating these services are purchased and maintained -- the sewing machines, the instructional aids for the teaching of care in the home and water safety, and the items loaned to the public from the Red Cross sickroom equipment loan cupboards such as wheel chairs, commode chairs, and other equipment needed by patients convalescing at home.

You support the work the Red Cross Society is doing in your community when you donate to the Red Cross. Therefore, be generous to your local Red Cross branch during March which is Red Cross Month.

Junior Futurity Heads Events for Young People

The 13th Annual Alberta Junior Futurity Show heads the list of events planned for young people at the Canadian Western Stock Show and Sale, March 27th to April 2nd in Edmonton.

This year's Junior Futurity has attracted 11 Aberdeen Angus calves, 11 Charolais calves, 42 Hereford calves and 14 Shorthorn calves from 47 exhibitors aged 10 to 18 years inclusive. As the name suggests, the Junior Futurity is a show only since young exhibitors return the animals to their herds following the event. The Junior Futurity Show goes at 7:00 p.m. Saturday, March 27th in the Sales Pavilion.

The other major event for young exhibitors is the beef calf feeding competition, again open only to those 10 to 18 years of age. 55 Shorthorn, Aberdeen Angus and Hereford calves have been entered in this section which will declare a Junior and Reserve Junior Champion. Along with the senior champions, the Junior animals will compete for Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion awards in the finished market cattle show. The Junior calves will be judged starting at 8:00 a.m. Wednesday, March 31st.

A group of 4-H Beef Club members from clubs surrounding Edmonton will also be performing a useful task Monday and Tuesday, March 29th and 30th. On both days the 4-H members will be conducting tours of Edmonton school children, many of whom will be getting their first look at a beef cattle show.

Not to be forgotten are the many youngsters who attend the show to assist their fathers with show herds. Alberta's future farmers will be much in evidence, March 27 to April 2nd during the Canadian Western Stock Show and Sale.

Plump Kernels and Life on Earth

When you think of it, healthy, plump grain seed directly affects the health and prosperity of nearly every rural community on earth.

A bountiful harvest must begin with the careful placing of bright fat kernels into an inviting soil environment at precisely the correct time.

That's something to think about during March. Federal Minister of Agriculture, H.A. Olson has proclaimed March as National Good Seed Month.

Probably good seed holds even more significance to food producers.

Here is how one Saskatchewan grain grower expressed the idea: Top quality seed in the pedigreed categories gives higher yields per acre than commercial grades, because cleaning the grain to Certified standards means automatically selecting the most vigorous plants.

Also seed cleaned this well is virtually free of weed seeds. The best way to eradicate weeds is to stop planting them.

Today the grower can use over quota delivery privileges to obtain top quality seed. Further more, he can exchange commercial grade for Certified bulk seed now within easy reach of nearly every farmer in the Prairie region, making seed handling simple.

That's only one man's opinion of course. Although scientific or economic documentation always seems so inhuman, careful research provides a firm foundation for making more right decisions.

The amount of research respecting seed quality is limited, but some scientific measurements do show the benefits from taking extra effort to seed carefully selected kernels.

Three year trials in Manitoba show that grain in the bin may not always make good seed.

These test results match those obtained at the research station at Lacombe, in that large seeds produce healthier and more vigorous and higher yielding plants than small seeds. Only heavy cleaning will take out those small seeds.

At Lacombe large barley seeds out-yielded small barley seeds by twelve bushels per acre, or by about 30 percent. Preliminary results from similar research at the University of Saskatchewan last summer gave similar results.

Over a three year period in the Manitoba tests, researchers obtained farm samples which had been cleaned in the local elevator. Some of the seed was recleaned at a specialized cleaning plant and then Certified seed of the same variety was purchased and all three samples were seeded in adjacent plots.

During every year of the test, the elevator cleaned seed gave the lowest yield and the pedigreed seed gave the highest yield.

In this case wheat was the crop used. The three year average yield for the pedigreed seed came out to 29.2 bushels per acre; the recleaned seed averaged 27.4 bushels per acre; and the elevator cleaned averaged 26.6 bushels per acre.

Researchers found too that 101 of the 130 samples collected were contaminated with weed seeds or other grains by cleaning at the local elevator.

Taking the average performance for just two years, 1966 and 1967, pedigreed wheat seed outperformed elevator cleaned seed by six bushels per acre.

Those carefully documented field test results are worth thinking about too, during Good Seed Month.

EVANSBURG NEWS

The recent cold days we had were a real shock after the lovely weather we had enjoyed. However, the cold not so comfortable for watchers of the snowmobile races, was ideal for the ice for the carnival skaters.

Many district residents came to see the skaters in the second annual Kin Kapades. Also seen at the carnival were former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grassi of Grande Cache.

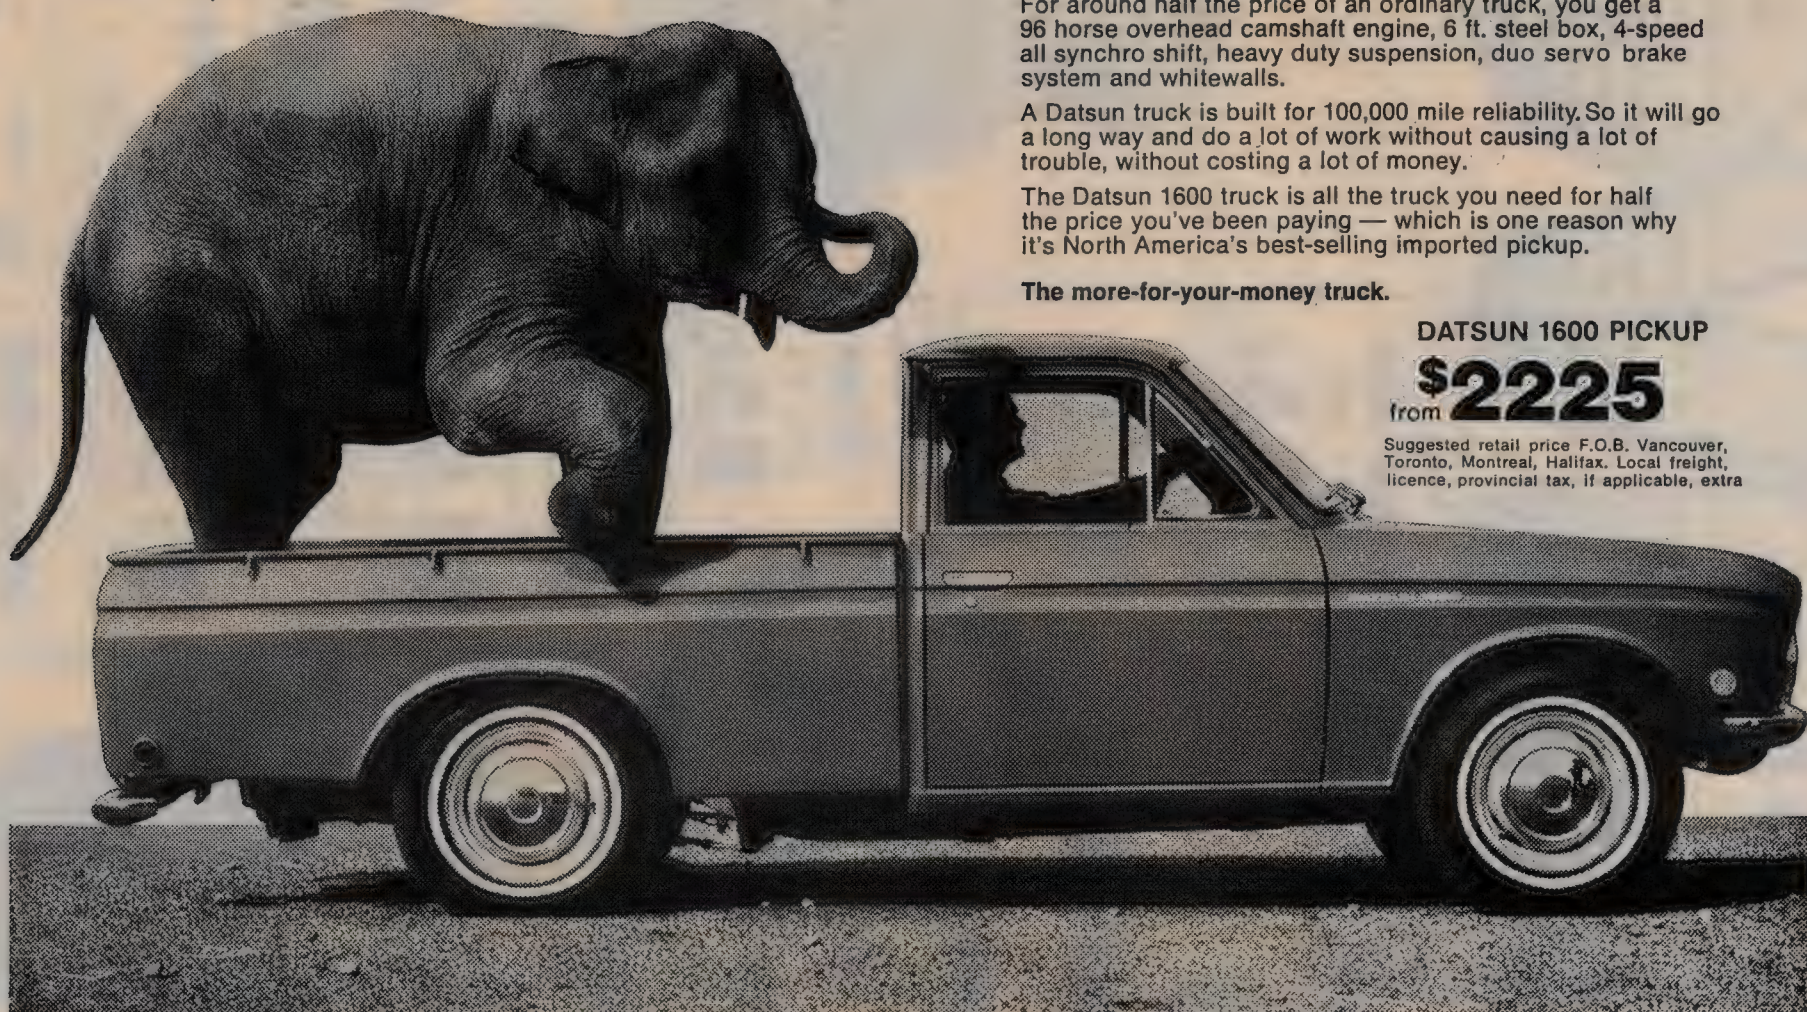

The Evansburg High School students attended a career day at the school, recently.

Baptism services were held on February 14th at the United Church. The following children were baptised: Teena Maria Lorenz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Many children are absent from school because of the flu bug making the rounds again. And again, I am writing this bit of news from an Edmonton hospital, while awaiting surgery.

FAMILY DISCIPLINE

The family is the working grounds for many interactions. Discipline is one of those interactions. What is discipline to you? Is it the hickory stick behind the shed or is it a process of self-development.

Mrs. E. Clarke refers to discipline in this way. Parenthood should represent the ultimate in planned obsolescence. When a child does the right thing; when he takes the appropriate choice out of his own self-will, the parent has achieved success.

The objective then is to develop within the child the kind of self discipline that will lead to responsible citizenship.

Such a quality is inspired in an atmosphere of love and trust. If we feel accepted and cared for, our self-esteem is high and we want to live up to that self image. If we trust someone, we are receptive to that person's teaching. We are willing to learn.

Self discipline relates to rules of life. By the time a child learns to talk he is capable of understanding such things as:

1. The protection of his own physical safety.
2. Respect for the rights of others.
3. Respect for other people's property.

However such self discipline develops in slow progression. It is influenced by the example of parents, by the child's own experience, and in some degree by reward or punishment. It cannot flourish in a climate of fear.

Studies indicate that harsh unenlightened discipline on the part of the parent produces either a hostile child determined to "get even" some day; or a youngster so withdrawn and insecure as to be inadequate to deal with his own responsibilities. On the other hand permissive parents, who establish no guidelines, seem to produce an equally mal-adjusted human being.

Parents who take a middle course of action with respect to discipline seem to succeed best in rearing emotionally stable children.

Of course each child is different. One may be placid and obedient while another is stubborn and difficult. The parent reacts according to the kinds of things the child forces him to deal with. Nevertheless family principles can be upheld and children, despite differences in temperament, can learn them. A child's basic emotional need is to have a feeling of self value; to be recognized as a person, and to achieve something. Parents can, if they will, satisfy all of these needs. Deep down inside, the dearest wish of every child is to please his parents. If the youngster never succeeds in doing this, if the parents always find him wrong, his feelings of rejection is reflected in his behavior.

It is difficult to be "friendly but firm" in the hundreds of situations that require disciplinary approach. But as family rules hinge on the really important values, the things that are going to matter ten years from now, they will provide a framework for self discipline that makes sense to the child as well as to his parents. He may not like the rules, but he will respect his parents for giving him guidelines.

If You See a Sasquatch Run To Nearest Phone

The International Wildlife Conservation Society is engaged in a research project on the unknown primate which is called the Sasquatch of the Pacific North West, including parts of British Columbia and Alberta. Sightings were made during the Big Horn dam clearing. The main area of interest is, however, the northern part of Washington state.

The directors of I.W.C.S., who have been gathering data on the Sasquatch mystery for eleven years, (as well as data on the Himalayan Yeti, or Snowmen, for 22 years) believe that the Sasquatch may possibly be an extremely rare species of primate hitherto unknown to science.

Information of all kinds finding of foot prints, sightings, stories, etc., will be greatly appreciated, particularly so if the information is new and up to date.

The Society has taken a temporary headquarters at Evans, in the state of Washington, and a twenty four hour phone service will be available for receiving information. The telephone number is area code 509, MU 4-4883. A second number may also be used should this one not be available. Area code 509, MU 4-2935.

Drayton Valley 4-H Members Hold Workshop

On Tuesday, March 2nd the Drayton Valley 4-H Mutton and Beef Club held a workshop and meeting at the Kenneth MacKenzie home.

Mr. Gordon Wells of the Alberta Department of Agriculture spoke on sheep and demonstrated methods of care, including tail-cropping and immunization injections. Members of the club had an opportunity to try various tasks for themselves.

After a delicious supper served by Mrs. MacKenzie, the regular business meeting was held and members given the opportunity of asking Mr. Wells questions. It was also decided to attend the Edmonton Rodeo and Stock Show at the end of March.

Club members extended their thanks to Mr. Wells for his help and to Mrs. MacKenzie for the very enjoyable supper.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE D.A.

Phone Stony Plain 777-2231 between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

E. C. LOWE District Agriculturist TOM BROWN Asst. Dist. Agriculturist
In Drayton Valley each Wednesday at Sekura Auction Mart from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

March 31st is the deadline for renewing all livestock brands in Alberta that were due for renewal on December 31, 1970. After that date it will be necessary to have the brand reissued.

L. Brinkhurst, the provincial department of agriculture's brand recorder, reports that a large number of registered brand owners have not returned their renewal forms which were mailed out last fall.

Section 22 of the Brand Act states that: "Any person who brands, or directs, aids or assists in branding any stock with a brand, vent or mark which has not been recorded under the provisions of this act or which has been cancelled thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence and shall in addition to any other penalty to which he may be subjected by law, be liable on summary conviction thereof to a penalty not exceeding the sum of two hundred dollars and costs."

Mr. Brinkhurst asks all registered brand owners who have changed their address within the last four years, and who have not notified his office of this change to do so immediately. It would also be very much appreciated if those who wish to cancel their brands would let him know so that he can keep his records up-to-date.

The cost of renewing a brand is only $2, whereas the cost of having it reissued is $5. The cheque or money order should be made out to the provincial treasurer, and addressed to the Alberta department of agriculture.

The 1970 Alberta Brand Book is now available from the department of agriculture. It contains 39,200 livestock brands plus fur bearing animal and poultry tattoo marks, recorded in the department's brand office. The cost of the book is $5. The cheque should again be made payable to the provincial treasurer and addressed to the Department of Agriculture, Agriculture Building 9718 - 107 Street, Edmonton 6.

A copy of the brand book and application forms are available at the office of Stony Plain.

GOOD RESPONSE TO MULTIPLICATION PROGRAM

The secretary of the Alberta Stock Seed Distribution Committee, Sherman Yelland, reports a tremendous response from members of the Alberta branch of the Canadian Seed Growers Association to the Canada department of agriculture's request for assistance in multiplying and distributing foundation seed of the new Canbra oil-producing rapeseed varieties, Span and Zephyr.

The committee received three times as many applications for the seed as it was able to fill, he says. He also points out that a response of this magnitude is a clear demonstration of the willingness and ability of Alberta's pedigreed seed growers to take on massive multiplication seed programs. Final proof of their skill in propagating pure seed, however, will come next fall if analysis shows a low erucic acid content.

The Stock Seed Distribution Committee calculated that 60,000 pounds of foundation Span (early Polish type rapeseed) and 4,500 pounds of foundation Zephyr (later Argentine type) would be required to produce enough certified seed in 1971 to plant Alberta's entire 1972 rapeseed acreage.

The committee, says Mr. Yelland, regrets having to set a limit on the amount of seed distributed for multiplication, but they have purposely geared production to Alberta's 1972 spring planting requirements so that there will be a sure market for almost all of the certified seed. Span is the variety to watch in our district.

There are more cattle, calves and sheep on Canadian farms, but fewer horses. As of December 1 there were an estimated 12,217,000 cattle and calves, 652,000 sheep and lambs and 324,600 horses. At December 1, 1969 there were 11,823,000 cattle, 598,000 sheep and 341,100 horses.

Weekly Livestock Report

The Edmonton weekly livestock report for the week ending March 6, 1971 provided by the Livestock Division, Canada Department of Agriculture

SALES	CATTLE & CALVES	CATTLE	CALVES	HOGS	SHEEP
This week (est.)	4450	3000	1450	3000	445
Last Week	6054	4032	2022	3883	79
Same Week (1970)	4276	2973	1303	2507	81

SUMMARY

Receipts of cattle and calves were sharply lower for the week although slightly higher than for the same week in 1970. Replacement classes of cattle and calves made up approximately 80% of sales with butcher cows comprising approximately 50% of the slaughter cattle sales. Trade was only moderately active throughout with very few top quality classes on offer. Butcher steers sold under pressure to 25 lower. Butcher heifers were generally steady. Butcher cows 50 cents higher. Bulls and veal steady. SLAUGHTER CATTLE AND CALVES

There was some pressure on butcher steers early in the week with most sales 25-50 lower, but prices improved by mid-week to close at a practical top of 31.75 with the odd sale closer to 32.00. Butcher heifers were uneven early but closed on a firmer basis and steady with last week's close. There were closing sales to 29.70 for choice clean handyweights. Heavy, overfat steers and heifers were meeting regular discounts of 50-1.00. All grades of butcher cows opened steady but sold 50 higher by mid-week. Plain quality cows sold strong with prices overlapping into the medium quality cows. There were sales to 20.50 for good conditioned cows as the week closed.

REPLACEMENT CATTLE AND CALVES

The quality of replacement classes on offer was below average at prices mostly 50-1.00 lower for yearlings and heavier weights. A few better quality packages sold about steady early in the week. Short yearlings and stock calves were in fairly good demand at steady prices with the lighter weights fully steady to firm. There were sales over quotations for calves under 250 lbs. SHIPMENTS

Last week's cattle and calf shipments off the Edmonton Public Stockyards were: East, 47 feeders, West to B.C., 42 slaughter, Export, 26 bulls. Feeders to southern Alberta areas - 850 cattle and calves.

Feed Lot Pollution Studied

Soil pollution from feed lots is the subject of a study by the Canada Department of Agriculture Research Station at Lethbridge. Preliminary studies indicate that pollution from the great quantity of manure deposited on farm feedlots may be exaggerated for the semi-arid conditions in southern Alberta. The photo shows one of the large feed lots in the Lethbridge area.

NEW ALFALFA VARIETY

A new alfalfa variety has just been released by the Canada Department of Agriculture. Called Drylander, it was produced by Dr. D. H. Heinrichs at the Canada Agriculture Research Station at Swift Current, Saskatchewan, and, as the name implies, it is well adapted for pasture and hay production on dryland in Saskatchewan and Alberta

Quota Prospects for 1970-71 Crop Year

Except for wheat, no real quota limitations are anticipated for cereal or oilseed crops by the end of the present crop year.

This view is held by the Alberta department of agriculture's marketing economist, David Walker. He bases his opinion on several factors including more competitive pricing by the Canadian Wheat Board for feed grains; a reduced U.S. corn harvest; and an ever-increasing demand for vegetable oils.

Here is how he sums up the present situation for cereals and oilseed crops.

WHEAT: Generally lower levels of wheat production around the world have considerably improved wheat marketing prospects. If wheat continues to move as anticipated, and visible supplies are maintained at reasonable levels, quotas will have to be opened beyond the nine bushel level. In fact, it is not unreasonable to expect a quota of 10 to 12 bushels, depending upon how far the Wheat Board decides to run stocks down, by the end of the 1970-71 crop year.

BARLEY: Anticipated sales of over 225 million bushels plus 180 million bushels for on-farm feeding in the prairies suggest that supplies will be much tighter by the end of the present crop year than they have been for several years. Hence, quotas are expected to be large, if not open altogether.

OATS: The oat situation is basically the same as for barley even though only a very small part of this crop is actually delivered to the Wheat Board.

RAPESEED: Prospects for rapeseed seem to improve daily. By the end of December Canadian farmers had marketed 29.0 million bushels, or well in excess of the previous crop year's total marketings for the whole year. It is now almost certain that the entire rapeseed crop will be moved before the 1971 crop becomes available, and that quotas will be open well before the end of the present crop year. There are also prospects for higher prices before the end of the 1970-71 crop year.

FLAXSEED: Even though there is still a large supply of flaxseed and linseed oil on hand, the situation for flaxseed is much better than initially anticipated. Prices appear to be held up by domestic price support programs in Argentina and the U.S.A., Canada's two main competitors. This situation has aided Canadian sales. Open quotas later in this crop year, without a further depression in prices, are a distinct possibility. The final outcome however, depends upon policy decisions in Argentina and the U.S.

THUNDER PUMP

The bittern, legendary bird of the marsh is found throughout the old and new world. Called thunder-pump or stake-driver from the peculiar vocal sounds it makes during the breeding season. These have both the rhythm and sound of a suction pump, working slowly in thick muddy water. The sound carries far and is surprisingly loud close at hand. Bitterns skulk about the edge of marshes, often "freezing" with bill pointed vertically, eyes gleaming beneath and plumage blending into the reeds.

Our heartfelt sympathies go out this week to the Hopfe family who have lost a devoted husband and father. Mr. Hopfe passed away suddenly after suffering a heart attack a month ago. Mr. Francis Hopfe, or Bill as he was known here, has been our janitor for fourteen years.

It was he and his family who as if by magic cleaned mud-tracked hallways every evening during Drayton Valley's many rainy days. Many times his ingenuity kept the heating system under operation. The length of hallways between 20 odd classrooms and 3 portables taxed his ability to provide the excellent service that so many times was taken for granted. Our thoughts go to you Mrs. Hopfe and family, in your loss.

New Grain Act Effective April 1

OTTAWA -- The new Canada Grain Act, passed by Parliament late last year, has been proclaimed effective April 1, Agriculture Minister H. A. (Bud) Olson announced recently.

"The new Act will allow for a greater degree of flexibility within the grain handling industry," Mr. Olson said.

"Canada must be in a position to be able to rapidly respond to customer demands to hold its place in international grain markets."

The new Act enables the Governor-in-Council to revise grain grades after advance notice.

Roy Getson

United Farmers delegate, Roy Getson of Chip Lake will represent District 14 at UFA's annual meeting in Calgary March 16, 17 and 18. Mr. Getson will be among 70 delegates and directors attending the meetings which will declare rebates and patronage dividends to be paid to UFA member-customers on 1970 business.

Career Fairs at Several Points

It is becoming increasingly difficult for Alberta schools to keep students and parents fully informed about educational and occupational opportunities, say two department of education officials.

The view is expressed by Dr. L. W. Ferguson, supervisor of the counselling and guidance branch, and Mr. T. R. Mott, associate supervisor of counselling and guidance.

"Career planning is a very complex problem. A real need exists for co-operation between the schools and the whole community to meet this problem," Mr. Mott says.

The department of education has once again organized its annual series of career fairs and each fair, various businesses, industries and educational institutions will provide about 30 display or booth areas representing occupations, professions and educational opportunities. Daily attendance at past fairs has ranged from 1,500 to 4,000 persons.

36 LOSE LICENSES DURING FEBRUARY

The Honourable Gordon Taylor, Minister of Highways and Transport, has reported that during the month of February 36 persons lost their drivers' licenses, having secured 15 or more demerit points. 514 were sent courtesy notices, indicating that they had 8 or more demerit points. It still appears that many people are "smartening up" when they receive the courtesy notices as the number of suspensions is very low compared to the number of courtesy notices that have been going out.

Baden Powell Week Observed

On Sunday afternoon, February 21st at 2:00 p.m. a non-denominational church service was held at the Cardium Theatre, commemorating the beginning of Baden-Powell Week. The service conducted by members of the Drayton Valley Ministerial Association for the Cubs and Scouts of Drayton Valley.

The Cubs, Scouts, Leaders, and Parents and Friends attended this most interesting afternoon service. A silver collection was taken, the proceeds will be sent to camp He-Ho-Ha at Lake Isle. The Cub and Scout Group Committee would like to take this opportunity to express its thanks to: Mr. Serenas for the use of the Cardium Theatre for the church service, to Mr. Retallack, Manager of The Bay Store for allowing us to use the store window and to anyone who assisted this group.

Our very special thanks to the Ministerial Association for conducting the church service.

O.O.R.P. NEWS

We are planning a Rummage Sale for March 27th. Anyone with articles to donate may contact Lady Halushka, Lady Bengtson or Lady McMorris.

Our club would like to thank V. Heyland who donated the tablecloth and Artex paint which was raffled at our February Valentine Tea, $90.00 profit made on the raffle has been donated toward the Purple Pansy Senior Citizens' Home.

Eight members of the club were presented with Perfect Attendance gifts.

The future Purple Pansy Senior Citizens Home has formed a society and are busy getting through the "Red Tape". Some members are concerned that the Government feels that the Society may have to build a "self contained unit" type home rather than the more popular "lodge" type as the latter is not self sustaining. Nothing definite has been decided upon.

Members are urged to attend the March 16th meeting as D.D. Lady Reid of Wildwood will be present for her "Inspection Visit". We now have 53 members in the club.
